Privacy and Security

Our expertise in privacy and security spans HIPAA, HITECH, ARRA, Gramm-Leach-Bliley and state laws. We have extensive experience with the breadth of issues facing providers, insurers, plans, vendors and others that are now regulated by privacy laws. Our clients include complex national organizations including insurers, health plans, providers, disease management companies, trade associations and vendors to these organizations. We are knowledgeable in the full scope of issues including business associate relationships and contracting, data breaches, implementation of ARRA and on-going HIPAA issues. Our counsel to clients also extends to state issues that are often intertwined with federal requirements. We have the expertise and knowledge to assist with privacy related legal and compliance matters that may arise in a variety of contexts.
