Commercial Transactions

Our practice group handles contracts and related transactions in a broad array of commercial settings. We draft, review, and negotiate agreements on behalf of our corporate and nonprofit clients for everything from simple business services to complex technology licenses or outsourcing agreements. Our goal is to provide our clients with comprehensive business and legal risk analysis and then ensure our clients' expectations relative to such risks are appropriately addressed in the agreement. Our experience includes:

- Services agreements (professional and master services)
- Licensing agreements
- Reseller and distributor agreements
- Supply chain and distribution agreements
- Marketing and advertising arrangements
- Non-disclosure and confidentiality agreements
- Non-compete and non-solicitation agreements
- Joint development agreements
- Independent contractor agreements
- Software, website, and IP development agreements
- Hosting agreements
- Sales and UCC agreements
- Acquisition and/or transfer agreements
- E-commerce agreements
