Biography

Sanskruti is an experienced and compassionate immigration case manager with seven years of expertise in immigration. Before joining NJL, she practiced U.S. immigration law in India, managing a substantial caseload of non-immigrant visas like H-1B, L-1, and O-1, alongside cases involving VAWA, U-Visas, and asylum. Her extensive experience has given her a keen eye for detail, having prepared hundreds of immigration, employment, and family-based filings. Sanskruti is a trusted professional who communicates effectively between attorneys and clients, ensuring a clear and accurate exchange of information throughout the entire immigration process. She approaches every client relationship with great care and consideration, having personally experienced the immigration journey and understanding how challenging each step can be.
